Journeying through R.B.C. . . . We've learned so much along the way. Insecurity changed to confidence, immaturity yielded to growth, indifference developed into involvement. R.B.C. became more than a building, it became ours in a very personal way. With each year our experiences here will increase in value. Memories may fade but the Casey spirit will never grow dim in any of us.
 This journey has brought us . . .

... to change ...

When we first arrived at RBC, everything that we encountered seemed strange and new. Now, four years later, it is odd to think that RBC was at one time nonexistent, for us it's more like home. To be sure, Red Bank Catholic has kept up with the times with the new computer center, administration, and dress code, but it is the student body that has felt the most change and the most growth over the past 56 years to bring us one step closer.

SENIORS

Four years at Red Bank Catholic are now a part of the past for this year's senior class. As freshmen, we started out at the bottom of the ladder. Sophomore year, we became acknowledged as a well-rounded, spirited and promising class. Junior year brought greater privileges and the ability to call ourselves "upperclassmen". Finally, we were no longer just one step closer. Senior year arrived and we became the undisputed leaders of our school.

Looking back through the years, we have grown physically, spiritually and intellectually. Through our academics and extracurricular activities, we have made RBC a stronger institution.

Four years ago, we laid the foundation of our future by setting our goals high. With determination and effort, we as seniors are that much closer to fulfilling these dreams and hopes.

Though it is time to move on with our new hopes for the future, we will never forget the friends we made and the good times we had here at RBC. These are the memories that will last a lifetime for the . . .

Remember our . . .

Freshman year

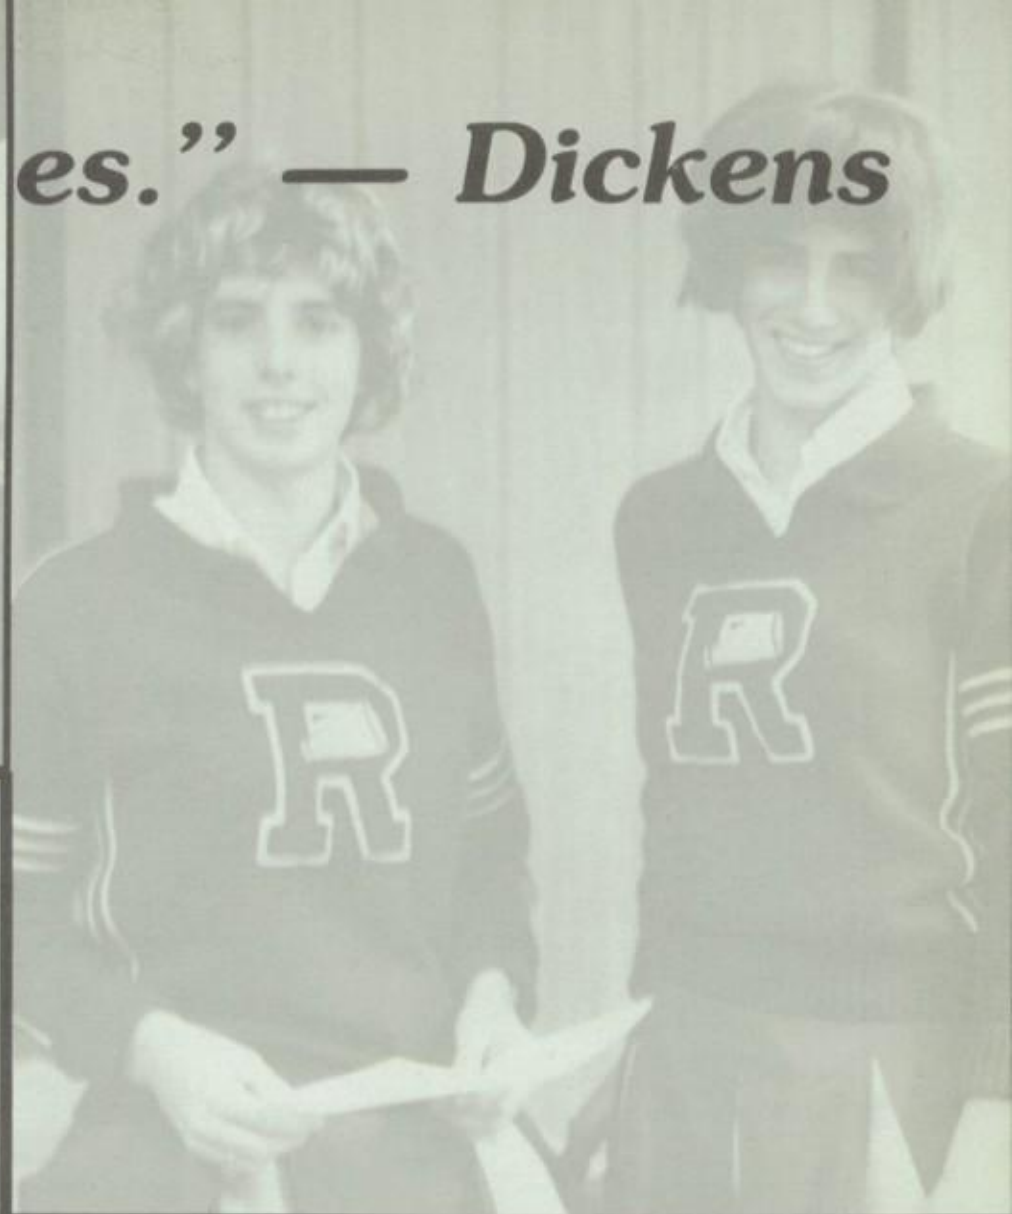

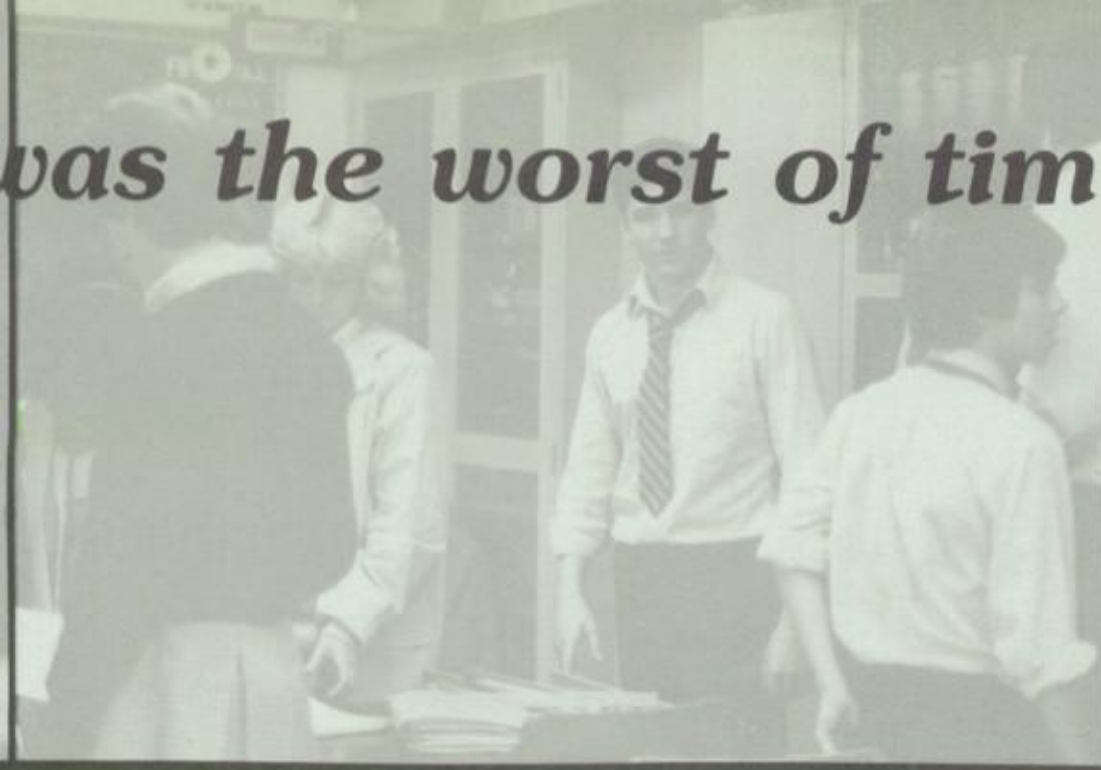

- being the first class to try out the new administration
- wearing any sweater or jacket we wanted
- never being able to raise enough money
- having only our fellow Freshmen in lunch and gym
- having twenty minutes to wolf down lunch
- trying to understand double periods and half periods and being the only students in the hall
- being the only freshmen to ever be exempt from exams
- finding out that we'll never play basketball against CBA again
- having our very first hypnotist assembly
- becoming one step closer to being Sophomores

Sophomore year

- wearing green skirts and green sweaters and green jackets
- having the first Freshman-Sophomore semi-formal
- having classes in the grammar school, come rain or sleet or hail or snow . . .
- playing soccer on the blacktop
- dissecting worms and frogs and fish in biology
- getting our first issue of the "Signpost"
- wondering what happened to activity periods

Junior year

- finding out that parallel parking was taken out
- finding out that parallel parking was put back in
- having half-days every Wednesday
- stalling the NHS installation ceremony for KW and EV
- having dinner at our prom served at 11:00 at Shore Casino
- becoming one step closer to being Seniors

Senior year

- adjusting to a new administration shift
- wondering what an “R” day was

The Ring Ceremony was the first time the Junior class was brought together for a formal occasion. Kyle Primevera, Wendy Groh and Judy Coroselli assisted Monsignor Valentino in the distribution of the rings to the class of '85 on November 10.

Senior members of Student Council congratulated the new upperclassmen and led the tradition of turning the class ring towards the heart — around and around eighty-five lucky times but saving the last turn for a special person! After mass, the Juniors were the guests of the Senior Class, another tradition, at a delightful reception in the B.S.A.

Student Council

Susan Duffy put it best when she stated, "One of the best feelings a person can have is that of accomplishment.

That's where student council comes in."

Sophomore year is a difficult one to experience, and to lead your peers during your own sophomore year is even harder. Susan Duffy, Patti Carlo, and Michele Burgoyne spent a very busy year running activities and representing

R.B.C. at various orientations and state conventions. The 1983-1984 school year was quite a productive one for the Sophomore class and we have these dedicated officers to thank!

Student council

Leading a new class in a new school . . . it's not an easy task. Class officers had to campaign for positions in front of a group of people they hardly knew. When elections were over, the officers had their work cut out for them. President Kristen Miller, Vice President Piper Ried, and Activities Chairperson Terry Corola demonstrated their outstanding leadership qualities by carrying the Freshmen class through the first hectic year at R.B.C. Their efforts were rewarded by a very fruitful year which included a Freshman dance. We see great promise for ourselves as we move one step closer to 1987.

For the 1983 Red Bank Catholic football team success cannot be measured by a win-loss record. The Caseys finished with a 3-6 season that is not a fair representation of the hard work, dedication, and spirit shown by the players in several close games. Representing Red Bank Catholic on the second all-County Team was senior Max Savaiko. Senior Tod Moran and junior Greg Cardone also represented Red Bank Catholic on the third All-County Team.

Caseyettes

This year Mrs. Trczpacz took under her wing both the basketball and football cheerleading teams. These spirited Caseys brought enthusiasm and excitement to football and basketball games, pep rallies and parades. For the third year in a row, the cheerleaders will be joining with the other members of the Marching Unit to participate in the St. Patrick's Day Parade in New York City.

Leaving 'em in the dust

This year our boys cross country team did better than expected. They had an 8-3 record and placed fourth in the Monmouth County Championships and sixth in the State Parochial Championships. This was the team's twenty-first year and they continued the winning tradition. Senior John Connelly was named to the first team in Monmouth County. The team traveled to Annapolis to compete against the Naval Academy. This was a growing experience that helped further the spirit and sportsmanship of the team.

The girls traveled to N.Y.C. to compete in The Eastern States Championships and finished fourth among the New Jersey Schools. The team placed fourth in the County Championships; sixth in Shore Conference Championships; second in the Shore Coaches Meet and fourth in the Parochial State Championships, thus qualifying for the Meet of Champions led by seniors Amy Tracy, Kerry O'Neil, Bronwyn Haley, Anne Ciesla, Jenny Eckstein and Daphne Stamos. Amy Tracy represented RBC by making All-County first team. The team can look back at a very rewarding season. With juniors Beth Devine and Carolyn Fee returning, the team also looks to a bright future.

Kicks in the Grass

The Casey soccer team ended their '83 season with a most impressive record. The varsity team added a new member this year, first year coach Aldo Delpino. Captains Rob Schenone and Ron Worobel led the Caseys all the way to the finals of the Monmouth County tournament at Wall stadium where they faced a very tough Marlboro team. Though the team will be losing an excellent group of seniors, veteran juniors Bob Motzel, Pete Lynch, Steve Arbachesky and goalies Chris Caputo and Louis Wyckoff will return.

The first singles and second doubles won the Wall Circle Tournament. The first doubles made the All State Team and the first, second, and third singles made the All Shore Team. Lynn Fagan went to the quarter finals in the state singles tournament and was "Athlete of the Year" in the Asbury Park Press. Overall, the girls tennis season was one full of achievements and exciting play.

This year's Girls' Basketball Team reached many goals under the direction of Coach Jones. They broke the school record for number of wins in a win-loss record as well as made it to the semi-finals of the Shore Conference Tournament. The Casey girls placed second in the Bayshore Christmas Tournament and second in the state. The Casey Hoosters were led by seniors Karen Smith, Debbie Collins, Sandy Satter, and Caroline Kenny. A Winning Season

For the 1984 season, Coaches Cross, Levin and Page had their work cut out for them in their hope to turn around a floundering varsity hoop program. However, they were ably assisted by a mixture of returning veterans; Dave DeLisa, Dave Boyle, Joe Arnone, and Bob Scrabis, along with new-comers Mike Fairlie, Pete Lynch, Kyle Flaherty and Chip Cuozzo. Also contributing through hours of grueling practice were Don Dow, Brooks Cullen and Bill Moran.

The dedication and sacrifice made by the players and coaches alike resulted in a complete reversal of the basketball fortunes. A league co-championship along with appearances in the Shore Conference Tournament and NJSIAA South Jersey Semi-final Tournament game are just some of the accomplishments achieved.

No one will forget the thrilling last-second triumphs over Hudson Catholic, St. John's, (not once, twice!), and Holy Spirit in the state tournament, not to mention the defeat of Long Branch in Casey Country avenging an earlier 20pt. loss. This win enabled the Caseys to tie for the "B" North top slot.

This was truly a basketball season to remember!

More than the base-ics

With Seniors Rick Bohl, Joe Pillari, and Todd Walsack the 1984 Boys Baseball Team was led with a great deal of enthusiasm and spirit. This year the Seniors were limited in number which can only be a sign of experienced talent for the upcoming years. The boys attribute much of their success to Coach Cross and Coach Casey.

Those Championship Seasons

1983-84 has been one of the most successful years ever for the executive board of the student council. Under the guidance of Miss Blasi the officers worked together to achieve several successful events such as the Homecoming and the Blood Drive. In addition they supported many various charities.

Working with the student council are the homeroom presidents who represent each and every student at council meetings. These officers also inform the executive board of students' needs and inputs.

Making it final . . .

The yearbook staff pulls it all together

Yearbook editors shoulder the responsibility of creating two-hundred pages that will represent the year in a fair, unified and well-rounded manner. After choosing a theme, editors must assign photographers, write copy and exhaust their creative resources to complete their sections. 1983-1984 proved to be a challenge, but not an impossible one! Even without the convenience of an office, this year's "wet behind the ears" staff met all deadlines, (Room 205 may never be the same!) and hopefully created a yearbook that will help everyone to remember in years to come.

Editors jailed for obscene captions! — (MaryJo Tivenan, Kathy Walsh, Eileen Villa)

"So this is what they meant by 'top of the heap'?" — (Editor-in-chief Kathy Walsh)

It is the job of the yearbook staff members to always be available to help editors and to sometimes act as "gophers". Led by staff head Loren Kelly, staff members were especially busy this year as deadlines approached.

Staff members: Tess O'Dwyer, Jenna Abbes, Loren Kelly, Cindy Holzer, Christine Theodore, Michele Lynche, Faith Devine, Christina Xenakis, Shari Kessler, Mary Jo Alexander, Mona Kirkorian, Carol Robbins, Sandra DeCesare, Anne Kelly, Patti Dwyer, Janet Uscinski, Caprice Stevenson, Kathleen Palm, Lisa Crispino, Scott Burke, Mrs. Scerbo, Colleen Carton.

Oklahoma!

Once again Mr. Coyle and the Red Bank Catholic students put on a great production. Roger and Hamerstein's "Oklahoma" was performed and starred Caprice Stevens as Laurey and Scott Burke as lovable Curly. The formidable Jud was played by George Ford. Mr. Coyle put in many hours of hard work with the cast and chorus. Ellen Torrogrosa and Maria Gillen, class of 1983, came back and offered their dancing expertise and acting abilities. The students were very dedicated to perfecting their talents and these efforts showed through in their performances.

Helping out and hanging out

R.B.C. students take part in a variety of activities designed to mold a well-rounded individual. Clubs and teams shape the mind as well as the body. In addition to organized groups, socializing is a big part of Casey life. Our location provides easy access to favorite "hang outs" such as Haagen Dazs, Pumpnickel's, and Freedman's, so at 2:30 these places are always flooded with chatting Caseys.

Biological Revolution Involving Man

New technologies have rescued the lives of thousands. In a sense, we now have new capabilities to direct and control the course of life from the very moment of fertilization. Along with new advances, however, have emerged new types of questions and problems. It is these questions and problems that the members of B.R.I.M. attempt to discuss in the light of their information about biomedical advances and their accompanying effects on society and life. In the challenge of this type of critical thinking, B.R.I.M. hopes to prepare students as the decision makers of the future.

Wrapping things up,

Constantly moving on can be a tedious task. The passing of time made events blur together and it seems we were always saying, "Nothing much happened today." Nothing much . . . except for the jokes, laughs, development of friendships, and awesome feelings of togetherness. We were in it together and we truly did it up!

This election year brought changes close to home. Our new administration prepared for Middle States and the reinstatement of a strict dress code made us truly "uniform". We dabbled in fads: chewing tobacco, Tom Cruise shades, and Cabbage Patch Kids. We rooted for the all-Women Powder Puff football league and the first woman in space, Sally Ride. We rocked to MTV, the Police's #1 song, "Every Breath You Take", and the horrifying tv documentary "The Day After."

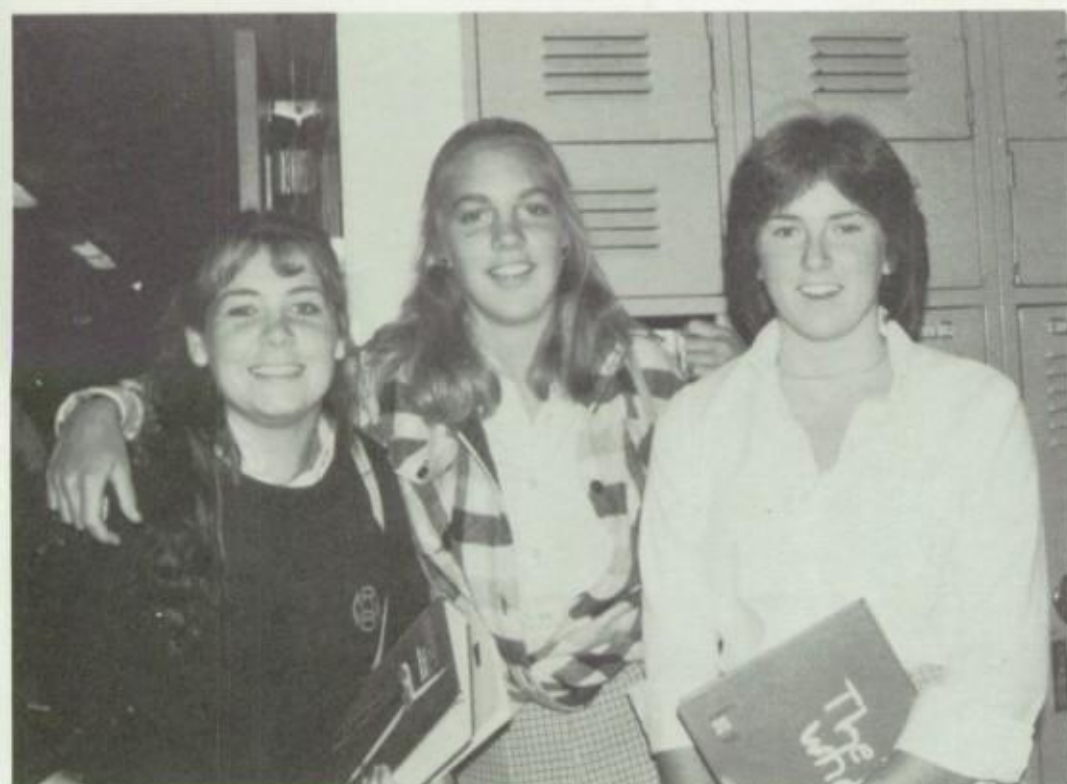

Popular 4-wheel drive vehicles made the scene as the U.S. landed on the island of Grenada and terrorists assaulted Lebanon. Korean Airline Flight 007 crashed down while the U.S. soared high at the Olympics. After getting our driver's licenses, we enjoyed cruising and hated trying to find a parking space. If school didn't monopolize enough of our time, we had jobs and did volunteer work. Still others gave the gift of life at RBC's successful blood drive.

Six hours a day, five days a week was never enough time with our friends. Hagen Dääz and McDonald's swarmed with green at 2:30. Caseys gathered for weekend parties, ski trips, and fraternized at the Hunt. Our play "Oklahoma" was rivaled only by the movie hit "Flashdance".

Technology took us by surprise. The computer center made BASIC a second language and we tried to get away with wearing portable cassette players in class. The world around us was changing rapidly and we kept up. Looking back, we find that it was those "nothing much" days that kept us one step closer and one step ahead!

and moving on,
one step closer . . .

Herff-Jones Yearbooks

Special thanks go to Mrs. Scerbos classes who put up with us! We would also like to acknowledge Mr. Montonaro for his patience, Jim Westbrook for his marvelous ski photos, Neil Kalakowski and Amy Scrabis for their art work, Lisa Crispino for her reporting, and the many rather anonymous people who were so key to the production of this book. Also, special photographic credit goes to Barbara Walsh, age 9, who took the color picture on the endsheet.

Cecilia,
It's been great. Don't forget Mr. Palphab's Algebra class. That was an experience. Have a good summer and hope to see you. Have fun but don't get into trouble!
Love + Love,
Joey

Cecilia,
Remember the time when I used to tell you that you like Jay B + Sid A. Well it was fun teasing you about it & even though you did like Jay B + Sid way. But the funniest thing I ever saw you do is beat up that crime ball weekly in home room.
xal
P.S. you love Jay

Celia,
It was great being friends with you in Algebra & Science classes. See you next year on my visits!!
Love Ya!!
Raguel

Cecilia
I am very glad we met - you have class-which most girls in this school don't have Love
Joey

Cecilia,
I'm glad I met
you this year. You one of the nicest friends I have ever had and you are the best girl friend.
Have a good summer and see you next year.

Love your Man,
Ted
